

Human Resource Association of Greater Concord Receives Prestigious SHRM Award for Advancing the HR Profession

[Concord, NH.], April 3, 2015 — The Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM) recently awarded the Human Resource Association of Greater Concord its prestigious EXCEL PLATINUM Award for the Human Resource Association of Greater Concord's accomplishments in 2014.

The award is part of the SHRM Affiliate Program for Excellence, which aligns individual chapters and councils with SHRM's goals. The award recognizes accomplishments and strategic activities and initiatives that enhance the human resources profession.

“At SHRM, advancing the human resources profession is our mission. The work of our chapters and councils are central to accomplishing that,” said Henry G. (Hank) Jackson, president and CEO of SHRM. “Receiving this award is testament to the Human Resource Association of Greater Concord's commitment to advancing the HR profession through local networking and professional development activities.”

The EXCEL award can be earned at four levels: bronze, silver, gold and platinum, and each level has a prescribed set of requirements and accomplishments that have to be met. The Human Resource Association of Greater Concord will receive recognition in SHRM publications and conferences, a certificate of recognition, and special signage to display at its meetings and events.

In addition to the more than a dozen program offerings available from the Human Resource Association of Greater Concord in 2014, the chapter was also recognized by SHRM for attaining Membership Superstar status for achieving a growth of more than 4% in chapter membership.
